

Short Course: Intelligence Analysis

(5 days)

Target Audience:

Analysts, researchers, investigators, intelligence collectors, policy consultants.

Course Outcome:

The learners should be able to:

- Plan the research process through alignment with priorities and organisational objectives
- Collect and collate information
- Analyse information
- Develop conclusions and recommendations
- Communicate information

*NQF Level 6
Fees: R6,950 (ex VAT)
Open courses for 2009:
16-20 March
8-12 June
6-10 July
7-11 September
26-30 October*

Course Description:

This course provides the basic skills needed to effectively process collected information in accordance with the principles of the Intelligence Cycle to enable delivery of actionable intelligence to the client.

Modules of the course include:

- What is intelligence analysis and why is it necessary?
- Analytical thinking skills and techniques
- Intelligence research methodology
- The intelligence process/cycle and desk management
- Collection Planning and different sources of information
- Collation and information management systems
- Evaluation of information
- Basic analysis tools and techniques
- Report Writing
- Presentation Skills

Certification:

4Knowledge Certificate of attendance at end of course which can be used for IALEIA Crime Analyst certification process and Stellenbosch University Certificate of Competence at successful completion of assignment.